

TITLEONE CELEBRATES 10 YEARS OF LEGENDARY SERVICE

Bill recently visited with Mark Tidd, President of TitleOne, and when asked what makes TitleOne different than other title and escrow companies. Mark responded, "That's easy—it's our team."

In the spring of 2000, a small group of entrepreneurs got together and decided to start a "different" kind of title company. They agreed on a simple concept: become a part of the American dream by providing innovative and superior service, hiring the best professionals in the Valley, creating a fun, and friendly work environment and letting the team members own the business. It worked!

"There is a Difference" at TitleOne the moment a customer walks in the door. From enjoying a hot latte to having your closing documents saved on a customized CD, the American dream of buying a home is sure to be a positive one. TitleOne has grown to become Boise Valley's choice for title and escrow services. We have offices in Idaho and Las Vegas, staffed with a world-class team to assist our customers.
