TITLEONE EARNS DISTINCTION AS ONE OF THE “BEST PLACES TO WORK IN IDAHO” FOUR YEARS IN A ROW

BOISE – Every year since 2012, TitleOne has been named one of the top ten “Best Places to Work in Idaho” in the large employer category (100 and more employees). The “Best Places to Work in Idaho” award is based on an anonymous employee survey and is given to a company that has created a culture where employees thrive.

As part of the survey, employees share what it’s like to work at their company by rating their overall satisfaction with management as well as workplace factors like work-life balance, compensation and benefits, and career advancement opportunities.

“It’s more and more important for workplaces to not only address the needs of their customers, but also of their employees in innovative and interactive ways,” said Mark Tidd, CEO of TitleOne. “As a growing escrow and title company, it is important for us to monitor how we are doing as we expand. This workplace award reinforces our environment and culture as well as our ability to retain and recruit great employees, who in turn, provide legendary service to our customers.”

About TitleOne

TitleOne was founded in 2000 by a small group of entrepreneurs who wanted to build a "different" kind of title company. Since then, TitleOne has grown to become the Treasure Valley's choice for title and escrow services, and now services the Ada, Canyon, Boise, Bonneville, Butte, Kootenai, Minidoka, Cassia, Twin Falls, Jefferson, Jerome, Gooding and Lincoln counties with 13 locations and more than 150 employees caring for customers every day. Through its charitable efforts, the company has contributed more than a quarter million dollars to Idaho charities over the years.
