TITLEONE GOLF TOURNAMENT SURPASSES THE QUARTER-MILLION-DOLLAR MILESTONE FOR FUNDS RAISED BENEFITTING IDAHO CHARITIES

BOISE – Celebrating a decade of legendary title and escrow service in Idaho, TitleOne announced today it has surpassed the quarter-million dollars mark for funds raised over the past nine years, primarily through its annual CharityOne Golf Classic at Spurwing Country Club. This year, 64 golfers helped raise $20,000 that will directly benefit The First Tee of Idaho and the YMCA’s Camp at Horsethief Reservoir. Since 2001, the charitable golf tournament has raised more than $235,000 bringing the company foundation’s total fundraising efforts to $265,000.

“We do a lot with Treasure Valley charities throughout the year, but this tournament is truly our hallmark event as far as fund-raising goes,” said Mark Tidd, TitleOne founder and president. “The fact that – in just nine years – we’ve been able to put more than a quarter-million dollars in the hands of Idaho non-profit organizations through this tournament alone, proves you don’t have to be a big national corporation to have a significant impact! It’s just remarkable what we’ve been able to accomplish and I’m very proud of our team and community.”

Since the company first opened in 2000, TitleOne (through their “CharityOne”) initiative has benefitted dozens of charitable organizations in the Treasure Valley in addition to the Golf Classic.
