

For Immediate Release

September 19, 2006

Media Contact: Jeannette Duwe, Duwe Public Relations
208-321-1253, duwe@duwepr.com

TITLEONE RAISES MORE THAN $140,000
FOR CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF IDAHO
Company to receive "Outstanding Corporation Award" from the Association of Fund Raising Professionals for its charitable initiatives

BOISE – With one final swing of a club at Spurwing Golf Course, the Children's Home Society of Idaho left the greens pocketing about $35,000. The donation is the result of The Children's Home Golf Classic – a charity golf tournament presented by TitleOne, and sponsored by Idaho Independent Bank. Now in play for five years, the tournament has raised more than $140,000 for the Children's Home Society of Idaho, a non-profit organization which has been serving children for nearly 100 years. One-hundred golfers participated in the shotgun start golf scramble on September 6.

"This is such an amazing gift to the Children's Home...to have an organization that is willing to take us under their wing, and establish a long-standing fund raising program to help us serve the most vulnerable children in this community," said Kara L. Craig, Chief Executive Officer for the Children's Home Society of Idaho. "Because of the generosity of TitleOne, the dedication of their employees, and the philanthropic spirit of CharityOne, we are better able to fulfill our mission of protecting the welfare of our community's children. We will be forever grateful for the giving nature of TitleOne."

Recently, TitleOne received notification from the Association of Fund Raising Professionals Idaho Chapter that the company had been chosen to receive the organization's Outstanding Corporation award – an award for which the company was nominated by the Children's Home Society of Idaho. TitleOne will accept the award at the National Philanthropy Day Awards Luncheon on November 8. The company has also been nominated for a similar national award (winner to be announced in early 2007).

"Charitable initiatives such as the Children's Home Golf Classic are definitely one of the highlights of our work at TitleOne because we know we're making a huge difference in the lives of people and in this community," said Vicki White, TitleOne vice president, Ada County manager and owner. "As a company, and as individuals, we feel it's tremendously important to help others as much as we can. Many of our charitable programs focus on kids because of the recognized potential to really impact a life in a significant way."

(more)

GOLF CHARITY RESULTS – Page 2

Since the company first opened in 2000, TitleOne (with the help of its newly formed foundation, “CharityOne”) has raised more than $375,000 for dozens of charitable organizations throughout the Treasure Valley.

TitleOne was founded in 2000, by a small group of entrepreneurs who wanted to build a "different" kind of title company. Since then, TitleOne has grown to become Treasure Valley's choice for title and escrow services, servicing the two largest counties in Idaho with five locations and more than 100 employees caring for customers every day. In 2005, TitleOne received the Small Business of the Year award from the Boise Metro Chamber of Commerce.

###